

Attention all freshmen, sophomores and juniors applications for the 2008-09 Superintendent's Student Advisory Council are available in student reception. Applications are due to Mrs. Berheide or Mr. Stillson by Tuesday May 13. No late applications will be accepted. (13)

CONGRATULATIONS to the Elkhart Central Symphony Orchestra on their amazing performance at the ISSMA State Orchestra Finals on Saturday. The orchestra placed 4th out of 8 finalists behind Carmel, North Central, and Goshen. Other finalist orchestras included Crown Point, Floyd Central, Lawrence Central, and Penn. Excellent job, musicians.! You represented Elkhart Central with a great deal of talent and class! Keep up the great work! (5-8)

The Guidance Office is compiling a list of all scholarships awarded to seniors. As a scholarship winner, your name and photo will appear in a tabloid in The Elkhart Truth in the early summer along with a list of all of the scholarships you have been awarded. If you have been awarded a scholarship, please bring a wallet-size picture of yourself along with a list of all of the scholarships that you have won to Mrs. Bradshaw in the Guidance Office. (5-8)

Attention Blazer actresses ages 18-25 ¶The Elkhart County Convention Center is looking for ¶silent ¶ actresses to help in the upcoming Quilt Garden Tour event. Your duties will include wearing a floral themed costume and delivering gifts and press materials to selected officials. ¶ All duties will be after school from 4:30-8:00 PM. A successful applicant for this job should be friendly, outgoing, comfortable in front of groups, have some acting experience and have a mode of transportation. ¶ A small stipend will be paid depending on hours served. For more contact information pick up an information sheet in guidance.(9)

Jostens will be here on Thursday, May 8th to distribute graduation products, caps and gown. Bring cash or a money order if you owe a balance, late order cap and gowns are $43.06. Make sure to pick up your items. (8)

Attention International Club Members... We are meeting in DD103 on Tuesday, May 13th during activity period. See you there!! (13)

Remember all Student Council applications for next year are due to Mrs. Espinosa in H216 by tomorrow. This includes the teacher recommendation, so if you're interested in applying, be sure to pick up your application today either in H216 or Student Reception. No late applications will be accepted, so don't wait! Interviews for the chosen applications will take place the week of May 13th.(13)

Student Council applications are due TODAY in H216. ¶ Don't forget to get yours turned in if you want to be considered for next year's Council. (8)

###