Congratulations to both Halle Hill and Andy Braden for being selected as part of the Wells Scholar Program at Indiana University at Bloomington. The Wells Scholarship is named in honor of Herman B Wells (1902-2000), who devoted his extraordinary life to Indiana University. Dr. Wells came to IU as an undergraduate, returned as a faculty member, then served as a dean before rising to become president of the university. Based solely on merit, the Wells Scholarship provides full tuition, mandatory and course-related fees, and a living stipend for four years of undergraduate study on the Bloomington campus of Indiana University. Scholars may choose to spend one of these years studying abroad through the university's overseas study programs. The Wells Scholars Program emphasizes close interaction with faculty; academic and career mentoring; opportunities for internships, research, and community service; a yearlong freshman seminar; and frequent contact with distinguished visitors. Between 18 and 22 incoming freshmen receive the award each year.

Seniors, applications are now available for the Elkhart City Bar Association scholarships. The primary criteria for the scholarships are academic performance and financial need. See the Guidance Office for details.

Congratulations to the Central HS Symphony Orchestra on their amazing performance at the ISSMA State Orchestra Championship on Saturday! The group clearly gave their best performance of the year and placed fourth out of eight groups. Central was the top scoring group of all Northern Indiana Orchestras for the second year in a row. Great job, Blue Blazers! (12)
